

General Notice of Final Designation

16/03/2011

Terrorist Asset-Freezing etc. Act 2010 (the "Act") Renewal of final designation

1. The Treasury Notice issued on 17 December 2010 publicised the coming into force of the Act on that date, and explained that the Act replaced the Terrorism (United Nations Measures) Order 2009 (the "2009 Order") and the Terrorist Asset-Freezing (Temporary Provisions) Act 2010 as the means by which the Treasury implemented the terrorist asset freezing requirements of UN Security Council Resolution 1373 (2001) and Council Regulation (EU) No 2580/2001.
2. In that Notice it was made clear that under section 46(5) and (6) of the Act directions made under the 2009 Order which were in force immediately before the Act came into effect continued to have effect until 16 March 2011 unless revoked earlier or renewed.

Renewal of designation

3. Under section 4 of the Act, the Treasury may renew a final designation at any time before it expires if the requirements in section 2(1)(a) and (b) continue to be met.
4. This Notice is issued in order to publicise generally the renewal of a final designation by the Treasury under section 4 of the Act of the person listed in the Annex to this Notice. Such person remains a "designated persons" for the purposes of the Act and is referred to as such in this Notice. The final designation expires one year from the date it was made unless revoked earlier or renewed. The date of the decision renewing the final designation is set out in the Annex to this Notice.
5. As a consequence of the decision, the prohibitions in sections 11 to 15 of the Act continue to apply in respect of the designated person.
 - Section 11 prohibits any dealing with the funds and economic resources of a designated person;
 - Section 12 prohibits the making available of funds or financial services to a designated person;
 - Section 13 prohibits the making available of funds or financial services for the benefit of a designated person;
 - Section 14 prohibits the making available of economic resources to a designated person; and

- Section 15 prohibits the making available of economic resources for the benefit of a designated person.
6. A copy of the Act is available from the Financial Sanctions pages of the Treasury website at: http://www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/d/terrorist_assetfreezing_act2010.pdf
 7. A copy of the Treasury's Notice of 17 December 2010 which provides further guidance on certain aspects of the Act - including the application of the prohibitions; the Treasury's power to license certain transactions, payments and dealings; general licences; exemptions from the prohibitions; the requirements to provide information; and the avenues available for challenging a designation – is available from the Financial Sanctions pages of the Treasury website at: http://www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/d/finsanc_terroristassetfreezingact2010_notice171210.pdf
 8. The UK's Consolidated List of individuals and entities subject to financial sanctions in effect in the UK which is maintained on the Treasury website has been updated to reflect an amendment made to the identifying information of the designated person.

Reporting requirements

9. Relevant institutions and other persons are requested to check whether they maintain any accounts or otherwise hold any funds or economic resources for, or provide financial services to, the designated person. If so, they must freeze such accounts or other funds and, unless licensed by the Treasury, refrain from dealing with the funds or economic resources or making them available to such person, and must suspend the provision of any financial services to such person. Relevant institutions must report their findings to the Treasury in accordance with section 19 of the Act, which also requires relevant institutions to inform the Treasury if they know or have reasonable cause to suspect that a person has committed an offence under the Act.

Where a relevant institution has already reported details of accounts, other funds or economic resources held frozen for designated person, they are not required to report these details again.

Licences

10. The Treasury have power to license certain transactions, payments and dealings which would otherwise breach the prohibitions in sections 11 to 15 of the Act. Any person who wishes to apply to the Treasury for a licence should apply in writing to the Asset Freezing Unit at the address provided in paragraph 15. The application should clearly set out the grounds on which the licence is sought and provide full details and evidence in support.
11. There are also a number of general licences in place under the Act which permit the following:

- funds to be sent to the prison accounts of designated persons, to be held by prison governors, and managed in accordance with normal prison rules:
